Five Year Effort at Colton Shows Progress

In February, 2020, Norman met with Ray Gochanour, then a Board Member at the Faithway Church of the Nazarene in Colton, California. Consideration was being given to close the church and sell the property.

But when COVID impacted local churches and Norman's travel schedule, Norman and Ray began working together to revive and stabilize the church. Food for the poor and homeless, a weekly Thursday night devotional and meal and free Bibles began to make a noticeable difference.

Since then Ray Gochanour has become the Pastor, and received his District License. The church has grown and is strong and stable. Norman continues to help on at least one Thursday night each month.

"WOW, the dynamics of how God orchestrates things! It's been five years; we are constantly being changed, growing, listening, and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Here's to a new coming year seeing what God can do."
